19th June 2022 Corpus Christi

We join with the whole world praying for Ukraine as the people there continue to resist invasion.

Prayer for Today

Heavenly Father, Thank you, that You know our name. Thank You that You have redeemed us, that You have called us by name, that we are Yours. Thank You that we are not defined by our sins or the times we've caved to temptation or the demons we've given leave to enter us or our homes. Thank You for the promise of a new name given us written on a stone. Amen

Collect

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments, we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20 Abram Blessed by Melchizedek

And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. He blessed him and said, “Blessed be Abram by God Most High,

maker of heaven and earth,
and blessed be God Most High,
who has delivered your enemies into your hand!”

And Abram gave him one-tenth of everything

Psalm 116 10-end Thanksgiving for Recovery from Illness kept my faith, even when I said, “I am greatly afflicted”;

I said in my consternation,
“Everyone is a liar.”

What shall I return to the LORD for all his bounty to me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD;

I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

O LORD, I am your servant;

I am your servant, the child of your serving girl.
You have loosed my bonds.

I will offer to you a thanksgiving sacrifice
and call on the name of the LORD.

I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people,
in the courts of the house of the LORD,

in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 The Institution of the Lord's Supper

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Gospel: John 6:51-58 The Bread from Heaven

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever, and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.” The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” So Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day, for my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which the ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

Post-communion Prayer

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with These heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
